Proudly present a gourmet WINE TASTING DINNER

Featuring the wines of

Anglim Winery, Paso Robles, CA

Tuesday, August 26, 2008; 7:00 p.m.

$89 per person, inclusive of tax & gratuity

Host: Peter Kerr, The Wine Consultant Special Guest: Owner/Winemaker Steve Anglim

Owners Steve and Steffanie Anglim have been in the “winery” business for 12 years; six years officially in Paso Robles and the balance as “garagistes” in Southern California. Steve took the gift of a home winemaking kit from his wife and daughter very seriously. After “outgrowing” the garage, he contacted UC Davis, read the Enology & Viticulture text books that made the most sense and the rest, as they say, is history. Anglim, approaching their 6th crush, specializes in producing a wonderful selection of Rhone wines, sourcing grapes from some of the Central Coast’s top vineyards including Bien Nacido and Fiddlestix. Current production is about 3,500 cases and they plan to keep it that way for the foreseeable future, concentrating on making small lots of hand-crafted, quality wines. Join us as we sample 5 of their outstanding wines and learn the inside scoop on Anglim Winery

Each wine will be carefully paired with a different mouth-watering dish created by Owner/Chef Avinash Kapoor and his culinary staff.
